Christian History Made Easy (Rose Bible Basics)

56. Chapter Twelve Learning Activity: "Who Am I?"

This is a review worksheet, not new teaching. It uses "Who Am I?" riddles to help the reader recall the people and movements from Chapter Twelve on 20th-century Christianity, plus prompts to watch Inherit the Wind and define "postmodernity."

Key takeaways

- The riddles point to figures like Karl Barth, Dietrich Bonhoeffer, Billy Sunday, William Jennings Bryan, Pope John XXIII, and Billy Graham.
- Movements referenced include Pentecostalism (Azusa Street) and the ecumenical World Council of Churches.
- It is a recall exercise: use it to test your memory of the chapter, not to learn the material for the first time.
