Mighty Prevailing Prayer: Experiencing the Power of Answered Prayer

48. Will You Join Me in This Prayer?

This is the book's closing prayer, not a teaching chapter. It invites the reader to pray along, offering worship to the interceding Christ and asking God to make the reader a disciplined, Spirit-empowered person of prevailing prayer. It ends with the author's contact address.

Key takeaways

- A prayer of surrender: worship Jesus as the enthroned Intercessor, and ask to be taught to pray and to make prayer a priority.
- Prevailing prayer is spiritual warfare — asking God for a heart that feels the world's lostness and for strength to resist Satan and free his captives.
- The reader depends wholly on the Spirit praying through them, not on their own worthiness or power.

Scripture referenced

- Ephesians 3:20 -- echoed in 'immeasurably more than all I could ever ask or imagine'
